About the Three-Barred Cross

The Three-barred Cross is common to most Slavic countries. The three bars distinguish the Holy Cross as the Cross of Christ, as opposed to other crosses used in Western Christianity. The smaller upper bar represents the sign placed above the Lord's head, which read, "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews". The slanted lower bar reflects the fate of the thieves crucified on either side of the Lord: one side pointing up to Paradise, the other downward to Hades. On either side of the Cross are often pictures the spear used to pierce the Lord's side, and the pole with the sponge used to give Him sour wine to drink.

Regular Confessions Offered

“When you make the sign of the cross on the forehead, arm yourself with a saintly boldness; for you are not ignorant that the cross is a prize beyond all price. Consider what is the price given for your ransom, and you will never more be slave to any man on earth. This reward and ransom is the cross. You should not then, carelessly make the sign on the forehead, but you should impress it on your heart with the love of a fervent faith. Nothing impure will dare to molest you on seeing the weapon, which overcomes all things.”

(Saint John Chrysostom)

A Note from Fr. Anthony

Dear Parishioners,

The Cross of Gratitude continues to visit St. George this week. As I already had a few days of vacation planned and an airline ticket bought, Fr. Luke Iyengar has graciously agreed to celebrate Wednesday evening Divine Liturgy. I will be back to celebrate the rest of the Divine Services. I will be traveling in October as well for our clergy retreat and a trip to the West Coast. I try to schedule most of my vacation time for a time of the year when there are no major liturgical celebrations.

Invite all of your friends and family to make a pilgrimage and pray with us during these special days. Thanks to Fr. Schreck from St. Augustine parish, we also have a relic of the True Cross present at St. George during these days of prayer, and I will give blessings with it following all Divine Services.

Please note that on Sunday, September 28th, there will be a social following the 8:30 liturgy at St. George with Vitaliy Sobolivskyy, the sculptor of the Cross of Gratitude, before he takes the cross. Please consider making a donation to him (we have a box to collect money) as he has transported the cross to us free of charge and he lives in New Jersey!

Due to the exceptional nature of this week all weekday services will be held at St. George. However, next week we will celebrate an All-Night Vigil and Divine Liturgy at St. Mary's only for the Protection of the Theotokos.

Weekly pirohi sales resume at St. Mary's this Friday, September 26th. Call in orders accepted from 9am-11am on Wednesdays and Walk-ins welcome beginning at 10:00am on Fridays. Please call 724-266-8642 and not the office phone number!

Sunday, October 5th, we will have food and the parish open house as we did last year at St. Mary's. We will have 9:45am Matins with one combined liturgy at 11:00am at St. Mary's.

A reminder to sign up for the women's morning of recollection at St. George Saturday, October 4th (See flyer for details).

In Christ,
Fr. Anthony

Sunday after the Exaltation of the Cross

THE Lord said, "If any want to become My followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow Me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for My sake, and for the sake of the Gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see that the Kingdom of God has come in power."

What are the defining features of the followers of Christ? It's a three-step process: 1. denying ourselves, 2. taking up our cross, 3. following Christ.

1. How do we deny ourselves? By stopping being selfish, egotistical, narcissistic. In other words, by putting others ahead of ourselves. This does not mean that we do not take care of ourselves, rather we take care of ourselves by helping others. It's easy to become self-centered. Christ's followers work towards becoming Christ-centered.

2. What is the cross? In the times of Jesus Christ, crucifixion was the most horrific punishment possible. Roman citizens were urged to not even think about crucifixion. It was just a horrible, painful, and slow death. For Christians, the cross has become the sign of victory, a weapon that helps defeat evil. To take up our cross means taking our life - with all its joys and happy moments, with all the pain and suffering, with all the flaws, and death - accept it and embrace it, as hard as it may be, and stumble towards God, in imitation of Christ. For Christ it was not easy also. He was beaten, ridiculed, and physically nailed to the cross. A little side anecdote. There was a man who complained to Jesus that his cross was too much for him, there was no way he was going to finish the course, so to say. So, Christ took him into a big storage room, full of crosses, and said, "Fine, pick any cross you like." There were crosses of all sizes. The man spent some time looking at them but could not find one that he liked. Then he turns around and sees a cross by the door. Then he said, "I like this one. It looks like the cross that would fit me." And Jesus said, "That's the cross you left when you walked in here."

3. Following Christ does not necessarily mean more happiness or less suffering. In Christ, any happiness and suffering we experience will find its fulfillment. We can share our joy with those around us, especially those who are suffering, in this way co-suffering with them. And when we suffer, we can let others co-suffer with us.

We should take comfort in the fact that Christ saved us by suffering for us. Suffering is salvific.
