Nativity Fast Nov.15 - Dec.24

How can we prepare for Christ's arrival?

One way is by increasing our prayer. "The two great movements of the soul have always been withdrawal and return...withdrawal into God's presence through prayer for strength...without prayer, the quality of our service deteriorates. Without prayer we forget the world; with prayer we remember." Advent is a time to remember that in God, we move and breathe and have our being, and we must be with Him and consciously in Him before we can have authentic love and relationship with others." ~ Fr. Anthony Coniaris

Come, O Jesus, our Savior, redeem and save us!

A Note from Fr. Anthony

Dear parishioners,

I am very much looking forward to Thanksgiving. It is one holiday with no major liturgical celebrations which means I can relax more! That said, we will have a 9:00am Divine Liturgy for Thanksgiving Day at St. George. There will be no Friday morning Divine Liturgy at St. Mary's.

A reminder to please sign up for our St. Nicholas Celebration at St. George on Saturday, December 6th. There will be no liturgy at St. Nicholas Chapel that Saturday evening, although we will have a Vespereal Divine Liturgy there December 5th for the actual feast itself, time to be announced. The morning of December 7th, there will be no Divine Liturgy at St. George and instead Matins and Liturgy at St. Mary's.

Please pick up your envelopes for next year if you have not done so yet.

By next weekend, I hope to have our schedule published for Christmas and Theophany so you can plan accordingly.

In Christ,
Fr. Anthony

Every Divine Liturgy is at Heart a Service of Thanksgiving

The beginning of the anaphora the priest prays: “Out of nothing You brought us into being, and when we had fallen, raised us up again; and You have left nothing undone until You brought us to Heaven and graciously gave us Your future Kingdom. For all these things, we Thank You and Your Only-Begotten Son and Your Holy Spirit: for all these blessings, known and unknown, manifest and hidden, that were lavished upon us. We thank You also for this Liturgy which You are pleased to accept from our hands, though there stand before You thousands of archangels and myriads of angels...”

At the Ambon Prayer the priest prays: “Lord, blessing those who bless you and sanctifying those who trust in you, save your people and bless your inheritance. Preserve the fullness of your Church, sanctify those who love the beauty of your house, glorify them in return by your divine power, and do not forsake us who hope in you. Grant peace to your world, to your churches, to the priests, to our government, and to all your people. For all generous giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from you, the Father of Lights; and we give glory, thanksgiving, and worship to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.”

Come, O Jesus, our Savior, redeem and save us!

Twenty Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

But God said to him, “Fool! This night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?” So is he who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.”

The Rich Man in today's Gospel reading was defined by his riches. His preeminent thoughts were about collecting, protecting and hoarding his wealth. He forgot that he would have to let it all go one day. Our Lord tells us that “where your treasure is your heart will also be.” The Rich Man was so distracted by his material wealth that he could not see that the real treasure was not his possessions. The real treasure lay within. The real treasure within is eternal. Jesus called it “the Kingdom of heaven.” That night the Rich Man had to face death and he was not ready for it...

Because we are out of touch with the kingdom of heaven we get lost in life. We lose sight of what matters. Today Our Lord asks us to detach from earthly things because this is how we come alive to what is real, to His presence, to the kingdom of heaven within us. And he does it with such words as these, “Do not resist the evil man, but if he strikes you on the left cheek turn and offer him your right.” “If a man asks for your shirt, give him your coat as well.” “If a man asks you to go one mile with him, go with him two.” The Lord asks us to push the envelope and act in a way that is against our natural inclination to self-defense because this is how to deflate and eventually transform the ego that thinks only of itself. So when we are insulted Jesus exhorts us to bless! He commands us to love our enemies, and not in words only, but from the depth of our hearts. By doing the opposite of what seems natural to us, striking back, and taking revenge, cursing our enemies we allow what is negative and ungodly in us to die and what is positive and godly in us to rise.

Jesus said, “Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” How do we become “poor in spirit”. By detaching ourselves from everything that we hold on to so dearly. To be “poor in spirit” is to be free of attachments, to be free from things, to nurture relationships that are free and unencumbered by desires and expectations, to let go of our own self-definitions and to rest in the knowledge and experience of God who is “in all places, filling all things.” As we continue our journey of the Christmas Lent we are to remember to let go of earthly things, possessions and the cares of this life and to be grateful to God in every situation. In this way we cleanse the inside of the cup, as Jesus said, and begin to shine like the stars of heaven from within. Amen.
